From the Desk of Fr. Vasek

Greetings,

LENT

Lent is arriving! I hope that you are able to join in the active life of the parish during this season. The fish fry (back in-person as well!) offers great opportunities for service and fellowship on Fridays. Wednesdays we have a great prayer routine with confessions, Mass, Stations of the Cross, and a great group study on prayer. Each year, we ought to think about ways to focus on prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. The point of these practices is to help us grow in holiness. So, choose items which will help make you holy. Are you attached to something bad or attached too much to something good – think about countering that through fasting from it. Are you spending too much on yourself? Try to counter that by giving generously to some good cause. Do you think you should grow in prayer? Commit to a new prayer routine, and really commit to it! Let's all find ways to grow in holiness this year. The Saints always recommend that the best thing to 'give up' during Lent is sin.

SCHOOL

When Bishop Cozzens was here a few weeks ago and we met with parishioners, I mentioned that St. Bernard's School exists first and foremost for parishioners. Along with that, Catholic education has almost always blessed the wider community as well, which is the case in Thief River Falls. I say that because our early indicators for this coming year show that we are tracking to reach capacity in our younger grades. If you are hoping or planning to enroll for the coming year, please contact the school office soon to get yourself on the list (or waitlist should we reach capacity).

Grace and Peace,
Father Vasek

Parish Bible Study

You know that prayer is important but still find it challenging. Perhaps it's hard to find time, or you're unsure what to do when you pray. Or maybe you feel discouraged by your weaknesses and inability to overcome them.

If you have any of these feelings, you are not alone. Many of the saints struggled in prayer. They were like us. But each time they fell, they got up again and learned to rely more on God's grace.

Join us for When You Pray: A Clear Path to a Deeper Relationship with God. For this 7-week study there is an offsite option on Tuesdays at 2:30, beginning on February 18, and an onsite option following the 6:30PM Stations of the Cross in the Parish Hall.

Contact Carolyn Holecek at 218-681-3571 for more info.

LITURGICAL ITEMS

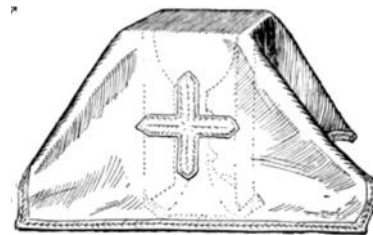

Chalice Items: The Chalice Veil

The chalice veil is the most prominent item in regards to the Chalice for most of the Mass. It is a rectangular linen that is draped over the Chalice, supported by the pall. The color of the veil matches the liturgical color of the day, and matches the color of the priest's chasuble. In fact, some priests have vestments that having a matching veil (meaning it is more than the same color, but the same embroidery and design).

In many religions, veiling persons and things denotes a sense of sacredness, of being set aside for God. This is especially true in Catholicism. Using the veil over the Chalice denotes that these sacred vessels are set aside for God to be used during the liturgy, meaning the Chalice is only to be used for Mass, not for the priest's morning coffee. The symbolism of the chalice veil goes deeper than that, though. Throughout the first parts of the Mass, the Chalice is present, but hidden, it is mysterious. During the Offertory, the veil is removed from the Chalice and the mystery of salvation is revealed to the congregation. Everything in Mass to this point leads up to this sacrifice which is about to unfold.

The Chalice also represents Christ, especially his Sacred Heart. The one all-sufficient sacrifice of Calvary is represented and made present to us at each Mass. Removing the veil from the Chalice represents, then, when our Lord was stripped of his clothing before being crucified. He became poor and exposed for the sake of the poor and vulnerable, just as he does in the Blessed Sacrament.

Next time you are at Mass take a moment to reflect on the moment the veil is removed and the mysteries of your salvation are revealed on the altar.

Chalice with veil

In the Gospel today Jesus moved with pity touched the leper and healed him. Let us pray today for the grace to be generous with our gifts to help those who are suffering.

By your gift to the St Bernards St Vincent de Paul you indeed put your faith into action as you bring healing to the poor, hungry and weeping. Donations can be given to the parish office.

Eucharistic Miracle of BERGEN

NETHERLANDS, 1421

The city of Bergen is famous not only for its characteristic canals but also for a Eucharistic miracle that took place there in 1421. For many months, the pastor of the Church of Saints Peter and Paul had experienced doubt about whether the Body and the Blood of Christ was truly present in the consecrated Host. The priest showed no devotion towards the Blessed Sacrament, so much so that one day after celebrating Mass he took the remaining consecrated Hosts and threw them in the river. Some months later the Hosts were found again, floating in the water and stained with Blood.

Jules Breton, Procession of the Blessed Sacrament, 1857

View of the Schelda River

The church of Saints Peter and Paul and the River Schelda

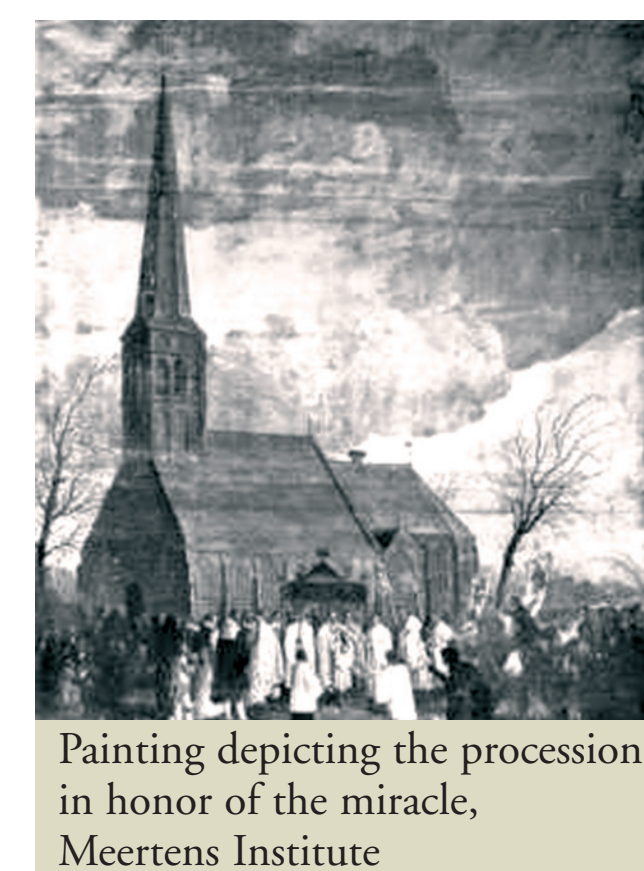

Bergen op Zoom (City on the Border), is located along the estuary of the Schelda River and has many canals running across it. In 1421, on the Sunday before the Feast of Pentecost, the pastor of the Church of Saints Peter and Paul, not believing the truth of the transubstantiation, threw consecrated Hosts left over from Mass into the canal.

Several months later, some fisherman found the Hosts floating in the water and soaked in coagulated Blood. News of the miraculous recovery of the Hosts spread quickly, and immediately many pilgrims came to see. Devotion was approved by the bishop and, though it was banned for a long period during the Protestant Reformation, Catholics silently continued to keep alive the memory of the miracle. Devotion was restored in the twentieth century and there are numerous public events to commemorate the miracle.

WHEN YOU PRAY

A CLEAR PATH TO A DEEPER RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

You know prayer is important but still find it challenging. Perhaps it's hard to find time, or you're unsure what to do when you pray. Or maybe you feel discouraged by your weaknesses and your inability to overcome them.

If you have any of these feelings, you are not alone. Many of the saints struggled in prayer. They were like us. But each time they fell, they got up again and learned to rely more on God's grace.

What God did in the lives of countless saints, he wants to do in the lives of ordinary people like us. And that's what this study is about: the journey of prayer God wants to take us on.
